Main news from Management

Dear All,

This time an update on the Capital Development Plans. Below a short summary of the Brief that went out to all member architects from the Royal Incorporation of Architects Scotland (RIAS) at the end of June and we hope to have the first submissions in by the end of July.

Camphill School Aberdeen (CSA) is looking to appoint a design team to deliver a £10m capital investment development over two of its three campuses (Murtle Estate and Camphill Estate). The Camphill facilities are considered world class and are highly regarded in their field, however many of the existing buildings no longer meet their specific needs. CSA have a robust strategy in place, with a financial commitment to deliver the works over the next ten years.

The selection process is being run over two stages; an open stage inviting all interested architects or architectural practices to submit a 500-word statement demonstrating their relevant experience, interest in the project and reasons why they should be considered for the project. Five bidders will be shortlisted by the judging panel to participate in the second stage, where they will be asked to compile a multi-disciplinary team and submit sketch proposals.

A full report on the first Brief is available in the Central Office and more information can be found on www.rias.org.uk.

Please do contact anyone in management if you have any questions or feedback.

Thank you and have a great summer!
